Name of the Event : Career Counselling

Date of the Event : 30th December 2024

Brief Details about the Event

A Career Counselling programme was conducted by the IQAC and Microbiologists Society, India for the students of Govt. Girls School, Vaishali Nagar with the aim of creating awareness about higher education and future career prospects. The initiative was designed to support students in understanding the wide range of opportunities available after completing their schooling.

A total of 32 students attended the session. The programme emphasized the importance of informed career choices, aligning personal interests with suitable academic paths, and understanding the relevance of higher education in achieving long-term professional goals. Various career avenues across disciplines were discussed to broaden the students' perspective.

The session encouraged active interaction, where students expressed their concerns and received guidance regarding subject selection, career planning, and skill development. The programme served as a meaningful step towards empowering students to plan their futures with greater clarity.

Outcome Achieved:

1. Students developed a broader perspective on available career options
2. Increased motivation to continue education beyond school level
3. Better awareness of the relationship between academic choices and career goals
4. Enhanced ability to identify personal interests and strengths
5. Greater willingness among students to seek guidance for career planning

Total No of Participants: 32
